Jody:

The original of the attached is submitted to you for action.

We don't have a standing policy on presidential magazine articles that I know of -- I suggest that they go to you for approval or rejection.

If you think the article contains something new which should be run by the President, please take it on in.

Thanks,

Rick Hutcheson

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JIM FALLOWS, ^{Sun}ACHSAH NESMITH
SUBJECT: Journal of Current Social Issues

The Journal of Current Social Issues is a publication of the United Church of Christ which reaches across denominational lines and has a readership that includes a much wider range of more or less liberal, religiously motivated and concerned activists. The issue which goes to press in mid-January will include Alan Paton, Bishop Claver, Andre Amalrik and Tom Capuano, the Mennonite missionary with whom Mrs. Carter met during her trip to Brazil. Most of the articles will be on personal experiences in the field of human rights. They would like to use your article as an introduction. This is an expansion and update of the Baltimore Sun piece last year. They must have it no later than January 12. It will not come out until well after all the treaties have gone to the Senate.

Jessica Tuchman has approved it.

*No need for President to clear - Hawes - this needs more work - let's get some of best from Delhi; plan speech. This will be released to general press so let's decide what our main point
is. Have people involved in H.R. been involved?*
